

Pennsylvania Communication Association
Membership Form

Membership is open to all persons engaged in, working with, or concerned about any aspect of human communication. To become a member or to renew membership, print out and mail this page with payment. Memberships obtained during or before that year's convention come with that convention's Annual and must be renewed by the following year's registration deadline to take advantage of the pre-registration discount and to receive the next Annual. Memberships obtained after the yearly convention correspond to the subsequent convention registration's sustaining membership opportunity and Annual distribution, unless otherwise requested.

Name:
Mailing Address:
Institutional Affiliation:
Phone number(s):
FAX Number:
E-mail address:

Interest Councils (Check two special interest areas with which you wish to be affiliated):

- Applied Communication
- Communication & Media Technology
- Communication Education
- Communication Ethics
- Health Communication
- Interpersonal/Organizational
- Languages of Communication
- Mass Communication & Society
- Performance Studies
- Rhetoric & Public Address
- Student

Membership type (check one):

- Student $25.00
- Regular $35.00
- Retired Faculty $10.00
- Sustaining $100.00*

Are you interested in purchasing back issues of Pennsylvania Scholars Annual?

- Carroll C. Arnold $10.00
- Henry W. Johnstone, Jr. $10.00
- Gerald M. Phillips $10.00
- Herman Cohen $10.00
- All four for $30.00

*Includes Convention Fee; available only when registering for convention on or before September 30.

Please enclose a check payable to: PCA (Pennsylvania Communication Association) and mail to:

Janie Harden Fritz, Executive Secretary
 Department of Communication & Rhetorical Studies
 Duquesne University
 600 Forbes Avenue
 Pittsburgh, PA 15282
 412-396-6558; harden@duq.edu